New Year's Parties (yes, two of them)

Saturday, 28 January

Party 2 (6:00pm—8:00pm)

For those who are unable to attend the first party (see overleaf), or who are unwilling to let the fun end so early in the evening, a second party has been arranged at the Beer Club Popeye in Ryogoku.

This is restricted to 20 people. Those moving from the first party at Roppongi to Ryogoku can do so easily by means of a 30-minute subway trip on the Ōedo line.

As the name of the venue suggests, this is a beer party, but this is far from being typical beer hall fare.

The party charge of ¥2,500 covers two pints of various types of special beer, and light snacks.

Please make bookings directly to the organizer of this event, Bryan Harrell at bryanharrell@yahoo.com before Wednesday January 25 and obtain details and maps etc. from him.

We look forward to seeing you at one or both of these parties!
